NOTIFICATION

April 2002

This is to notify you that in accordance with KRS 309.300, KRS 309.301, and KRS 309.312, all persons performing interpreting services for the deaf and hard of hearing are required to become licensed before July 1, 2003.

Therefore, a copy of the Kentucky Revised Statutes and Kentucky Administrative Regulations relating to the practice of interpreting for the deaf and hard of hearing are enclosed for your review. These laws and regulations should be studied carefully and retained for future reference.

Application packets will be mailed in early January 2003. The application forms, as well as the statutes and regulations, are available on the Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing web site at www.state.ky.us/agencies/finance/occupations/interpretsdeaf/index.htm.

Completed applications for licensure and temporary licensure will be accepted by the Board from January 1 through May 30, 2003.

If you have questions regarding this information, please contact the board administrator, Lisa Shelley at 502/564-3296, extension 239 or via e-mail at Lisa.Shelley@mail.state.ky.us.

Sincerely,
